Pritesh is an Associate Barrister and is part of the Litigation team. He joined Juristconsult Chambers upon being admitted to the Bar of Mauritius. He acts as Counsel for both domestic and international clients in high value and high stakes commercial, corporate and civil disputes as well as in contentious insolvency matters.

Pritesh's practice covers tax disputes, commercial litigation, employment matters, and real estate disputes. He regularly appears before Mauritian courts and tribunals such as the Assessment Review Committee. He also regularly undertakes corporate advisory work, providing legal advice and assistance to both domestic and international clients.

Pritesh has acquired overseas experience on multi-jurisdictional disputes involving shipping law, international law, arbitration, and construction litigation.

Pritesh has a keen interest in the fintech and emerging technologies sector.
